Dear [name of interviewer],

This is just a note to thank you again for taking the time to speak with me about [name of college] . I so appreciated your interest in [write something here about what the interviewer said or what you learned; in other words, personalize the note to the interview person] and your helpfulness in answering my questions.

I want you to know that as a result of talking with you and because of how “at home” I felt on campus, I have decided to definitely apply to [name of college].

Thanks so much for such a useful experience. I hope to speak with or see you again sometime soon.

Sincerely yours,
